Section H: Criteria

How are bursaries awarded?

- Bursaries are awarded according to academic merit, financial need/affordability of applicants.
- Employed applicants are awarded on a sliding scale.
- Bursary funds are paid out directly to tertiary institutions and other relevant service providers - bursary fund monies are ONLY paid out directly to students under exceptional circumstances.
- New and continuing students
- Final selections are made by the ISSF BURSARY.

Who is eligible for a ISSF Bursary?

- This category is only open to the South African Public (Unemployed and Employed) in cross sectoral studies. South learners between the ages of 18-35 who are unemployed are encouraged to apply. Priority will be granted to courses in the Insurance and related sectors.
- Unemployed Youth (Between the ages of 18-35)
- Employed
- Only applicants who intend to study or who are already studying for a qualification at a tertiary Institution, which is registered and accredited with the Council for Higher Education (CHE).

Disclaimer

Applicants are under no circumstances secured of, promised or guaranteed a ISSF Bursary. ISSF Bursary reserves the right to shortlist, invite and thereafter select applicants as seen fit by the various selection committees. Only applicants that comply with the minimum requirements will be considered for a ISSF Bursary.
