

FINANCIAL LITERACY

SHORT COURSE

Dear INSETA Valued Stakeholder,

You are invited to apply for a Financial Literacy short course offered by the University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN) in collaboration with the Insurance Sector Education and Training Authority (INSETA). This opportunity is for South African companies with a dynamic mechanism to adapt and navigate through the economic uncertainties currently being faced.

The Programme modules include Bookkeeping, Sustainable Investment Strategies, Growing the Fund, Governance Matters, and Financial Education and Advisory for the Members. The Programme reaffirms INSETA's commitment to promoting meaningful transformation by supporting and developing sustainable business growth of Small Micro Enterprises.

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM THE PROGRAMME?

- ✓ To promote an understanding of the key concepts, principles, and processes underpinning effective bookkeeping
- ✓ To build skills and create awareness on techniques relating to sustainable investment and fund growing.
- ✓ To develop participants' decision-making skills in relation to governance matters.
- ✓ To develop the delegates' understanding of basic financial practices and money management.
- ✓ To develop and train delegates on how to conduct financial literacy presentations in their communities.

The programme will start in the middle of March 2023 and will run for three weeks. A limited number of participants will be selected and recommended by the UKZN to participate after going through an application process. Upon successful completion the participants will receive a certificate of attendance.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS:

- Be an INSETA-registered employer SMEs (levy or non-levy paying).
- The company must be registered with Burial Society and must be a small company.
- Only one participant/applicant per company is allowed for the Programme
- Commit to putting aside time to actively participate in and complete the course

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS: 15 MARCH 2023
